Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a related language. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction. The script is a cursive hand, characteristic of the late Middle Ages. There are several large, decorative initials, such as 'K' and 'L', which likely mark the beginning of new sections or paragraphs. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and wear, particularly at the top edge where it was once bound.

Small handwritten mark or signature at the bottom left corner of the page.
