Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is oriented vertically, reading from top to bottom. The script is dense and appears to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect. The text is arranged in approximately 25 lines, with some lines starting with a small mark resembling a cross or a stylized letter. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, possibly legal or administrative, record.
