¶ De conjunctione lune cum planetis ac de conjunctione aliorum planetarum singulariter ad inuicem.

Aspicies in preuisione pluuiarum si aliquis planetarum ex inferioribus iungatur cum aliquo planetarum ex superioribus in parte meridiana: fueritq; inferior: aliquis a superioribus et aliquis ex inferioribus applicetur illis: quoniam incontinenti cum preuominatus inferior: fuerit separatus a superioribus pluuiis necessario expectanda erit. ¶ Et dixit albulmasar antiquorum: porro astrologorum peritissimus loca aspiciens: nomina autem attendere curauerit quarum hec est discretio: quotiens luna a uenere rediens pluuiarum significatio profecto reducitur. Et dixit a mercurio namq; recedens et ioui applicans aut soli aut e contrario non aliud prestat iudicium. Et dixit hec autem sunt singulariter et notoria: et quedam que planetarum apertiones satis congrue nuncupantur. Et dixit harum itaq; stellarum oppositio de climate tercio ad quartum ad partem australem deprehensa proprijs manat pluuijs: et ex eadem parte cuncta significatio pluuiarum occurret. ¶ Et dixit gasar iterum porro quidem ea que dicta sunt de oppositione in signis que aquas significat facta applicatione in gradibus scilicet eorum: et conuentum itaq; aut respectu forte indeprehensio et luna in domo propria saturno applicans ymbres multiplicat inducit.

¶ Liber astronomicus Guidonis bonati de forliuio explicit feliciter. Ad magistrum Johannis angeli viri peritissimi diligenti correctione. Erhardus ratdolt viri solertis: eximia industria et mira imprimendi arte: qua nuper Venecijs: nunc Auguste vindelicorum excellit nominatissimus. Septimo kal' Aprilis. Ad. cccc. lxxxj.
