Secundo die dixit deus. Fiat firmamentum in medio aquarū: et diuidat aquas ab aquis: vocavitq; firmamentum celum. Prophetam de celestibus mysterijs loquentem audiamus. Fecit em̄ deus firmamentum rotundum mobile cetera sensibilia continens. Et ex aquis congelatis in modū cristalli solidauit: et in eo fixa sidera. Spera autē celi cū sideribus in ea fixis duob⁹ axis voluit. Quoꝝ alter septē trionalis boreas: Alter australis nothus dictus voluit ab oriēte in occidentē tāta celeritate: vt nisi plane te contra cursum eam tardarent mundi ruinas faceret. Et artifex mundi: celi naturam aquis temperauit: ne conflagratōne ignis superioris: elementa inferiora succenderet. Supra nouem celorum orbes id est septem planetas: t speram octauam quam vocant inerrantem nonumq; orbem: qui ratione non sensu dephensis est: primusq; est inter corpora que mouentur: creditum est decimum celum fixum manens t quietum: quod motu nullo participet. Neq; hoc tantum creditum a nostris: maxime iunioribus Strabo t Beda: s a pluribus etiam hebreorum: pretereaq; a philosophis t mathematicis quibusdam: Equibus satis duos sit attulisse: Abraam hispanum astrologum maximū t ysaac philosophū: quoꝝ vterq; hoc attestatur: quin t hic ysaac decimū orbem ab Ezechiele designatum intelligit per zaphirū in similitudine throni: vt color zaphiri lucis nitorem: throni similitudo immobilitatem significet. Sed redeamus ad Moysēm diuidentem aquā ab aquis medio firmamēto. Triplex em̄ particio corporū sublunariū. Alia sup̄ medianam regionem aeris sunt: sup̄rema. s. pars eiusdem elementi t purissimus ignis quod totum etheris nomine designatur ibi pura immixta t legitima elemēta. Alia infra ip̄am aeris meditullū: que apud nos sunt vbi elementūs purum nullum (neq; em̄ purum elementum sensibile) sed mixta omnia ex feculenta crassioreq; parte mundani corporis constat. Intercedens regio aeris que etiam dicitur firmamētum. vnde t aues sub firmamento celi ab eo volantes introducuntur: ea est regio in qua sublimes ille impressiones apparent: pluiae: niues: fulgura: fulmina: tonitrua: comete t cetera id genus. Recte igitur nō solum situr: sed t nature p̄petrate hoc firmamentum superiora elementa ab inferioribus: quasi aquas ab aquis discriminat t distinguit. Sup̄ eum pura sunt elementa: infra eam perfecta mixtione ab elementali simplicitate discedunt. Vocavitq; firmamētum celum: cum tegat omnia sensibilia t inuisibilia quod a koylon quod est concaū deducit.
